

Susceptor in action

By using a MF power supply of up to 150 kW output power level a typical working temperature at the susceptor of 1,200 °C is achieved. This process is used for the production of LEDs.

Source: HÜTTINGER Elektronik GmbH + Co. KG